

4th quarter 2020 Lead Instructor CE Training Platforms 071000E1220 3 CEUs

- 1) MOODLE stands for Modular Object Oriented Learning Environment.
 - a. True
 - b. False

- 2) MOODLE was developed by Martin Dougiamas as a tool to help create online courses and share information.
 - a. True
 - b. False

- 3) MOODLE is open sourced, meaning that anyone can add to it.
 - a. True
 - b. False

- 4) When adding a course in MOODLE you must first create a new course. This is initiated by going to the “Site Administration” menu
 - a. True
 - b. False

- 5) It is recommended that you enroll yourself in the classes you create, as course manager, to aide in keeping tabs on the class.
 - a. True
 - b. False

- 6) The final step in adding a new course is to click “Save and Display”
 - a. True
 - b. False

- 7) It is recommended that you preview the lesson through the Student Portal to check for inconsistencies.
 - a. True
 - b. False

8) MOODLE is available on a mobile APP for iPhone and Android systems

- a. True
- b. False

9) SCORM stands for Sharable Content Object Reference Module.

- a. True
- b. False

10) As with MOODLE all Target Solutions additions start under the "Student" menu.

- a. True
- b. False

11) Using Target Solutions, you can only add one test per activity.

- a. True
- b. False

12) Target Solutions has an option for "unlimited" test attempts.

- a. True
- b. False

13) To find the blur option in YouTube you should look in the "Enhancement Tab"

- a. True
- b. False

14) "Permission" for access to your YouTube channel are found under the "Settings Tab".

- a. True
- b. False

15) To allow someone to have access to your YouTube channel you must either make it a public page or send an Invite to their email.

a. True

b. False